Professor Joubin Wins bell hooks Legacy Award

November 8, 2023

Alexa Alice Joubin, a scholar of critical race theory, feminism, and performance and film studies, was named the inaugural recipient of the bell hooks Legacy Award on April 7, 2023. The Popular Culture Association and American Culture Association (PCA / ACA) established the award to commemorate the late feminist writer and activist bell hooks (1952-2021). The award recognizes Joubin's achievements in research, teaching, and service, particularly her efforts to “dismantle intersectional systems of oppression with the distinct goals of uplifting members of historically marginalized populations and striving for social justice, all while teaching compassion and love” through her public scholarship and inclusive pedagogies.
